Chris From Rebellion dogs shared with us tradition two

For our group purpose there is but one ultimate authority... a loving God as He may express Himself in our group conscience. Our leaders are but trusted servants... they do not govern. Short form longer than the long form

12 & 12

Hypothetical Founder in Middletown, USA:

Being the founder, he is at first the boss. Who else could be? Very soon, though, his assumed authority to run everything begins to be shared with the first alcoholics he has helped. At this moment, the benign dictator becomes the chairman of a committee composed of his friends. These are the growing group's hierarchy of service-self-appointed, of course, because there is no other way. In a matter of months, A.A. booms in Middletown.

Committee he speaks of is a Rotating committee – Sharply limited in its authority. The committee gives no spiritual advice, judges no one's conduct, issues no orders Leaders are SERVANTS. Not senators Throughout AA, the group conscious decrees the terms upon which its leaders shall serve. Elder statesman vs Bleeding deacons:

The elder statesman is the one who sees the wisdom of the group's decision, who holds no resentment over his reduced status, whose judgment, fortified by considerable experience, is sound, and who is willing to sit quietly on the side lines Provide Quiet opinion, sure knowledge, humble example

“Do not drive by mandate, They Lead by Example” In turn, Our group conscious, well advised by its elders, will be in the long run wiser than any single leader

12 Traditions Illustrated:

A.A. is both a democracy and, in Bill W.'s words, “a benign anarchy.” A group elects its own officers—who have no power to order anybody to do anything “group conscience.” Its voice is heard when a well-informed group gathers to arrive at a decision Minority ideas get thoughtful attention. Therefore, God's voice is expressed through the group conscious.

Nick M from Harrisburg men's group will be doing tradition three next month

Concept 2

In 1955, the A.A. groups confirmed the permanent charter for their General Service Conference, they thereby delegated to the Conference complete authority for the active maintenance of our world services and thereby made the Conference excepting for any change in the Twelve Traditions or in Article 12 of the Conference Charter, the actual voice and the effective conscience for our whole Society. Bill and Dr. Bob, entrusted by the early groups to get the program going and to spread the message, found nonalcoholic friends to help them. They formed a trusteeship and delegated to it the responsibility for finances, the Big Book and other literature, public information, the service office and the AA Grapevine. However, as the trustees constantly looked to the co-founders for advice and guidance and the groups also continued to hold them accountable, it was evident that the leadership should be transferred to the A.A. groups as a whole. But if the groups were to carry on their primary purpose, they would have to delegate their leadership role to a General Service Conference. They do this by electing a General Service Representative for each group. These G.S.R.s meet regularly in area assemblies and every two years elect a delegate from among their number. Every April, the delegates from the 93 areas in the U.S. and Canada meet for six days with the trustees of the General Service Board, the staffs of the General Service Office and AA Grapevine and certain other service workers. Thus, this General Service Conference of A.A. is the actual voice and effective conscience of our whole Society in its world affairs.
