Eric B shared tradition one with us

- Each member of Alcoholics Anonymous is but a small part of a great whole. A.A. must continue to live or most of us will surely die. Hence our common welfare comes first. But individual welfare follows close afterward.

He also shared some of the questions about the tradition

1. Am I in my group a healing, mending, integrating person? Am I sometimes divisive? Do I ever gossip or take another member's inventory?
2. Do I make competitive AA remarks, such as comparing one group with another or contrasting AA in one place with AA in another?
3. Am I informed about AA as a whole? Do I support AA as a whole in every way I can, or just the parts that I understand and approve of?
4. Am I as considerate of AA members as I want them to be of me?

5. Do I go to enough AA meetings and read enough AA literature

Final responsibility and ultimate authority for A.A world services should always reside in the collective conscience of our whole Fellowship.

concept I contains the notion of the collective conscience of our Fellowship to augment our group conscience and our common welfare. These are essential to assuming final responsibility for and ultimate authority in making support available to groups through publishing and other services necessary to passing our message on.
