Matt shared tradition nine

Each AA group needs the least possible organization. Rotating leadership is the best. The small group may elect its secretary, the large group is rotating committee and the groups of large metropolitan area their central or intergroup committee, which often employs a full-time secretary. The trustees of the general service board are, in effect, our AA general service committee. They are the custodians of our AA traditions and the receivers a voluntary AA contributions by which we maintain the AA general service office at New York. They are authorized by the groups to handle our overall public relations and they guarantee the integrity of our principal newspaper, the AA Grapevine. All such representatives are to be guided in the spirit of service, for true leaders in AA are but trusted and experienced servants of the whole. They derive no real authority from their titles, they do not govern. Universal respect is the key to the usefulness

Concept nine

Good service leaders, together with sound and appropriate methods of choosing them, are at all levels indispensable for our future functioning and safety. The primary world service leadership once exercised by the founders of A.A. must necessarily be assumed by the Trustees of the General Service Board of Alcoholics Anonymous.

Concept 10 will be done by Andy

Closed at 2020 with a responsibility declaration
